

The Festival of Music and Drama

The Festival of Music and Drama for Strathmore and District, 1935, has again become a matter of history, leaving again the assurance that the Festival is of unquestionable value and importance to the schools participating particularly, and of much interest to the adult population connected therewith. The competitions as a whole are achieving an ever higher standard and this is as it should be. There were about 350 entrants and the adjudicators task was not an easy one. Mr. Geo. E. Bower, judge of the various musical competitions, by Irish and Mrs. Fish were adjudicators of the Town and Rural dramatic contests, with Miss M. L. Hummel and Jack Garrett deciding the winners in the recitation class.

Col. MacGregor was present all day and Mr. J. C. Buckley, M.A., gave the Festival during the afternoon. At the Final Concert of the Victors in the evening, the large Memorial Hall was crowded. Strathmore at a premium. Inspector MacGregor made the suggestion that one of the boys or the Strathmore High School be asked to perform. The suggestion was well filled by Jack Van Tighem. Col. MacGregor expressed his delight with the Festival, stating it was the first he had ever attended, and was amazed at the general excellence of the festival offerings.

Strathmore was the shield last night by Bow River for the general winning the largest number of points. Col. MacGregor called on the Chairman of the Bow River School Board to present this shield to Principal Crowder, who accepted it on behalf of the School. Mr. Crowder took the opportunity of thanking all who had assisted in producing the Festival. The boys and girls for their efforts, his staff for their loyalty, the teachers of the other schools for their co-operation, and the general public.

TOO MUCH WEALTH In the Hands of A Few People

In the countryside, in streets of villages, towns and cities; in homes, in market places, from pulpits and public platforms; from men in many walks of life you hear the same pronouncement—“Too much wealth in the hands of too few people.”

Who can rectify such an unsatisfactory state of affairs?

In many instances the people themselves have the remedy.

In the grain business the grain growers have the remedy in their co-operative marketing organization. All they need to do is to give their patronage.

Co-operative organization is the most effective means of preventing accumulation of great fortunes in the hands of a few people.

Co-operation never makes millionaires.

THE WORLD AT LARGE

The finding in the U.S. by the Supreme Court that the N.R.A. is unconstitutional opens up problems so vast and far reaching that to foretell the outcome is impossible.

In Vancouver conditions which make it necessary for the larger stores and business houses of different kinds, to be guarded by police in uniform and plain clothesmen, both inside and out, render the position of proprietor and employee one of grave concern. The Vancouver Province (town) says that there has been a more aggressive program of work devised at Ottawa, for the benefit of B.C. the above conditions would not exist.

Then the million dollar tunnel in Toronto's harbor to connect the city with a future airport. Alas, our belated judgment feels that the crisscrossing of some of Toronto's slums would have been a much more beneficial and worthy expenditure. Is it that we see but darkly?

“ONE MAN'S MEAT” ETC.

In view of the very informative address given recently by Mr. McTernan on wool and silk production, the following article will be of especial interest.

Silk Crisis in Japan

A political conflict between Nipponese militarists and financiers, together with a crisis in Japan's vital silk industry threatening ruin to millions of poor silk farmers, is the real story of Japan's economic difficulties, according to an article published by Time magazine.

Some 18,000,000 silk growers—20 percent of Japan's population—are faced with disaster as the combined result of depression and the development of rayon production.

Silk founded the Japanese Empire. By siphoning from silk farmers whose standard of living was exceedingly low, Japanese merchants made enormous fortunes resulting to the world.

The rich and luxury-loving United States was a particularly profitable market. The post-war boom there resulted in a four-fold expansion of the silk industry. In 1922 looms in the United States were paying $5 a pound for 88 percent of Japan's raw silk. The United States still takes 90 percent of the silk exports, but it takes it cheap or not at all. Between 1929 and July, 1934, the silk price plunged from $5 to $1.10 a pound. Since then it has crept up to $1.50. But Japanese business men can't make money at this price.

Having used the silk farmers as the lowest stepping stone to the Japan's vital greatness, Japan also taxed them heavily, while going light on industrial taxation, and today Japan's militaristic government taxes them still more in order to keep swelling Japan's prestige with newer and more deadly war machinery and an aggressive policy on the continent of Asia.

So the farmer's taxes are almost inevitably, and dangerously in arrears and there is a hard symbol of the fact he sells his daughters to work in America's cotton mills. And very often he sells his daughters into prostitution.

In addition to millions of farmers engaged in the raw silk industry, silk is also the livelihood of some 2,000,000 farmers (breeding establishments), big and small, employing about 42,000 Japanese. It employs further several thousands middlemen and traders of various sorts.

Japanese business men, including the Mitsui, Mitsubishi and other great commercial houses, cannot meet the advent of rayon production by getting into the business themselves. Japan now stands second only to the United States in this new competitive field. Between 1921 and 1934 Japan's synthetic production leaped 188 percent, from 43,000,000 pounds to 140,000,000 or 8 percent of the State's production. Japan's synthetic silk has become her third largest export. Last year the export value of Japanese rayon was $25,000,000—against $5,000,000 for raw silk and $51,000,000 for cotton cloth.

The profit margin is not nearly as great as in the old silk profits. Japan has to import her rayon raw materials. But the business is still accelerating.

Meanwhile the raw silk industry languishes. And its millions of workers have no way out like the financiers. The antagonism of the dominant military element in the Japanese diet for the commercial element does not aid in the silk problem. Business men, however, still retain some influence in a government that is busy piling up expensive armament budgets.

More government control, it is held might help the silk industry. There is an interesting parallel to this history in the United States attempt to look after its own farmers by adjusting price and production of wheat. But people have to go on eating and there is no artificial wheat industry to undermine agrarian problems on the continent.

NIGHTINGALE

Valley Garden School closed on the 23rd so that the teacher W. H. Harrison and his pupils could attend the Festival in Strathmore. The children taking part in the contests were Fanny Carlson, Myrtle Stoodley, Doris Putnam and Johnny Carlson. Fanny Carlson was very pleased to win 2nd place in singing for grade 8. Mrs. Thurston kindly played the accompaniment for the singing and the teacher and pupils much appreciated her help in training.

Valley Garden and Nightingale played a very exciting soft ball game. The players from the north won by one score when Hazel Stoodley caught the deciding ball. Nightingale however won from Balntree when they played a few days later.

Leonard Hilton has moved back home after spending three weeks near Rockyford where he is farming some land.

Mrs. S. Coops returned from Edmonton where she attended the W.I. convention as delegate from Nightingale.

Mrs. Stoodley, Mrs. Thurston and Mrs. Harrison attended the musical Festival at Strathmore and very much enjoyed the day.

Mr. Newall and Mr. Thurston were Calgary visitors last week.

Mr. Courtney and Mr. Chalkin of Calgary spent Sunday at the Harrison home. They expect to leave for their new home in B.C. soon and so came to visit with Edmond Chalkin.

Social Credit is quite the topic of discussion and the local store here many arguments both pro and con.

The depressed price of farm products is a problem with which everyone is familiar, but on the 1913 basis farm product prices have never been as low as gasoline. Between 1913 and 1934 gasoline did not rise in price to nearly the same extent as farm products, yet since 1920 its price has almost continuously declined. The data for the above graph are based on figures published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

A FAIR DEAL POLICY

In the fifty-four years of its existence, Imperial Oil Limited has always welcomed legislation in the interests of labor and the basic industries. It has never had a labor dispute. It has always paid fair wages. To the greatest extent possible it has provided continuous employment and it has given its workers increasing leisure so as to expand employment. It has sickness and death benefits and old age pensions because it believes that the worker and his dependents are entitled to such protection.

Imperial Oil has always tried to deal fairly with collateral industry and with its competitors. Its success in this connection is indicated by the fact that it has never had a major lawsuit. It has always recognized the principle that the only satisfactory business transaction is the one which affords a fair profit to all parties concerned. It has fulfilled all its undertakings. It has enforced no onerous claims on others.

Imperial Oil has always tried to deal fairly with the consumer. It has continuously improved the quality and steadily reduced the prices of its products. It has invested millions to make these products always available wherever they may be needed.

In 1934 Imperial Oil earned $5,023,400.12 from its Canadian manufacturing and marketing operations. This, you may say, is a lot of money, but to earn that amount Imperial Oil had to make and market goods to a value of $82,861,311.15. The stockholder, who in the consumer of a year sold $8,286 worth of goods and made a profit of $300 would not be regarded as enjoying an undue measure of prosperity, but his ratio of profit to the total value of his business would be the same as Imperial Oil's.

It has been Imperial Oil's practice to make wisely, measure truth, and justify for this it believes to be the secret of success.

NEWS OF CEREAL U F A

The annual convention of Acadia
District Association was held on May 25 in Cereals Community Hall. There were 45 official delegates and well over 150 visitors present during the day,
while the large hall was filled to capacity
in the evening. Mr. N. D. Stewart was Chairman. The morning was spent hearing the Minutes, financial statement and the report of the pro ceedings.

The following resolution were passed
by the delegates:
Whereas there is a possibility that in the next Provincial election no party will have a clear majority and that advances may be made to the U F
A Group favoring the formation of a Coalition Government.

And whereas we believe that the future of our movement can be as sured only by keeping clear of al liances with other groups not affiliated with the C. C. F. movement. Therefore be it resolved that, while we are will ing to cooperate with any group in supporting legislation that is to the advantage of the province as a whole,
we are definitely opposed to the U F
A Group joining a coalition Government.

advantage of the province as a whole,
we are definitely opposed to the U F

A second resolution from the same local was as follows: Be it resolved that whereas there is a grave danger of the Provincial Political situation ad versely affecting the U F A and C. C. F. movement as a whole, and where an educational work has, in recent years been insufficient in this Con stituency and believing that our can didate will be sufficiently occupied in dealing with provincial political af fairs we request that all directors and other officers of the Provincial Con stituency Association be prepared to take part as speakers in the coming election campaign, stressing the prin ciples of the U F A movement and the desirability of retaining member ship in the organization.

Resolution 3 from Carleton local and sponsored by J. Cameron and G.
McDonald, was resolved that this convention endorse the action of the annual U F A convention in declining to accept the Abernethy proposals.

Mr. Lorne Froudford was unani
